WELCOME TO THE STORY

“And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.”
- Colossians 3:15-16

A Story that Invites Us

POEM: “Remembering That It Happened Once” – by Wendell Berry

Remembering that it happened once, we cannot turn away the thought,
as we go out, cold, to our barns toward the long night’s end, that we ourselves are living in the world it happened in when it first happened, that we ourselves, opening a stall (a latch thrown open countless times before), might find them breathing there, foreknown: the Child bedded in straw,
the mother kneeling over Him,
the husband standing in belief he scarcely can believe, in light that lights them from no source we see, an April morning’s light, the air around them joyful as a choir.
We stand with one hand on the door,
looking into another world that is this world, the pale daylight coming just as before, our chores to do, the cattle all awake, our own frozen breath hanging in front of us; and we are here as we have never been before, sighted as not before, our place
Holy, although we knew it not.

WELCOME

SHARING GOD'S PEACE

P: Even as we pray for the peace of the world, let us bring peace to one another,

All: as we share the peace of Christ this Christmas morning.

P: The peace of Jesus is with you.

All: And also with you.

Please Stand

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: With gratitude and joy,

All: let's sing to the God of love.

L: In cheerful celebration,

All: let's lift our hymns of praise.

L: With hope and joyful hearts,

All: let's sing to Christ, the newborn King.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

The prayer of confession will be centered around the already lit Advent wreath. One by one, the liturgist will extinguish the candles of hope, peace, joy, and love, only to relight them from the Christ candle at the end.

P: Holy God, too often we feel as if change is hopeless. The problems of this world feel too big, the path forward is unclear, and we are not confident that we can truly make a difference.

Liturgist extinguishes the candle of hope

P: Together we pray:

All: Forgive us for extinguishing hope.

P: Holy God, too often we believe that peace is a thing of fairy tales. Our spirits are anxious. Our bodies are weary.

Our world is fractured. Instead of praying for peace – both in ourselves and in our society – we assume that peace is no longer on the table. We give it up.

Liturgist extinguishes the candle of peace

P: Together we pray:

All: Forgive us for extinguishing peace.

P: Holy God, too often we paint joy as naïve – a luxury reserved for children and pets. We forget that you ate with friends, that you went to weddings, that you laughed and rested and hiked mountains. We forget that you knew joy, and that you want joy for us in this fractured world. Forgive us for turning away from your light.

Liturgist extinguishes the candle of joy

P: Together we pray:

All: Forgive us for extinguishing joy.

P: Holy God, too often we treat love like a vending machine. We put some coins in and assume we'll get something back. However, in our wiser moments, we know that love is not meant for keeping score. Love is meant to overflow, to spill out to our neighbors, to transform our world. Forgive us for holding love so tightly.

Liturgist extinguishes the candle of love

P: Together we pray:

All: Forgive us for extinguishing love.

P: Family of faith, sin separates us from things like hope, peace, and joy. Sin wiggles its way between us and love, both love of neighbor and love of self.

Fortunately for us, God had something else in mind. God sent God's only son to this world so that we could see another way. So friends, hear and believe the good news of the gospel: no matter how many times we turn our back on hope, or extinguish peace, or snuff out joy – no matter how many times we let love burn out – God continues to light our way.

Liturgist relights the candles of hope, peace, joy, and love from the Christ candle.

P: We are forgiven. We are seen. We are loved.

All: The good news of this day – the hope, the peace, the joy, and the love of this day – exists for all. Thanks be to God! Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: The angel has announced it:

All: Jesus, our Savior is born!

L: Like the shepherds, let us share the good news:

All: Jesus, our Savior is born!

L: Like the angels, let us praise God, saying:

All: Jesus, our Savior is born! Glory to God in heaven and on earth peace.

LITANY

P: Ever-present God, clothe us with your compassion.

All: Instill in us your kindness and your mercy.

P: Bind us together with humble patience

All: and with gentle love.

P: Rule in our hearts, that we may be Christ-like,

All: displaying your glory in every word and in every deed.

P: In the name of Christ Jesus, we pray.

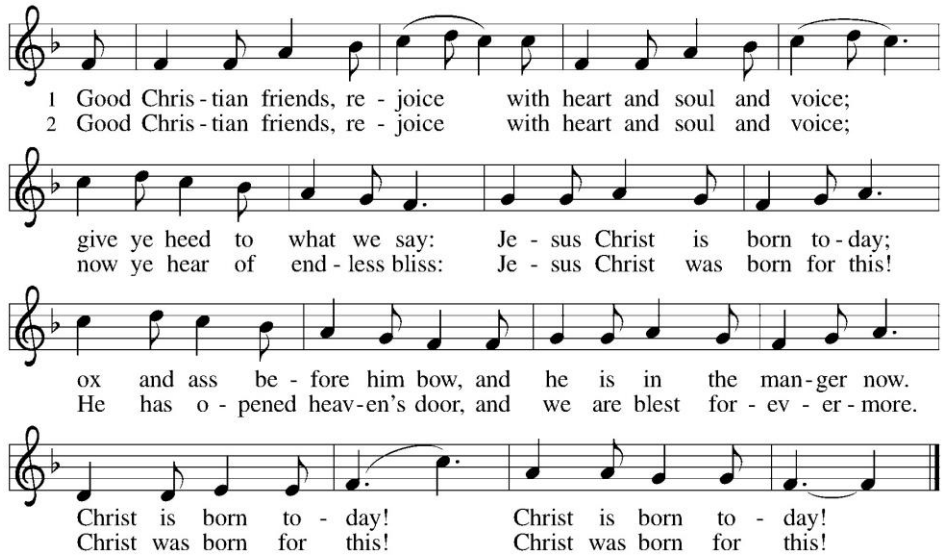

All: Amen.

Silence for Reflection

P: The gift of Christmas is this: amazing grace and abundant love.

All: God forgives our transgression and strengthens our resolve to bring love and hope to the world.

CAROL: “Good Christian Friends, Rejoice” vs. 1,2

1 Good Chris-tian friends, re-joice with heart and soul and voice;
2 Good Chris-tian friends, re-joice with heart and soul and voice;
give ye heed to what we say: Je-sus Christ is born to-day;
now ye hear of end-less bliss: Je-sus Christ was born for this!
ox and ass be-fore him bow, and he is in the man-ger now.
He has o-pened heav-en's door, and we are blest for-ev-er-more.
Christ is born to-day! Christ is born to-day!
Christ was born for this! Christ was born for this!

POEM: “Christmas Returns” by Howard Thurman

Christmas returns, as it always does,
with its assurance that life is good.
It is the time of life to the spirit,
when the mind feels its way into the commonplace,
and senses wonder of simple things: an evergreen tree, familiar carols, merry laughter.
It is the time of illumination, when candles burn, and old dreams find their youth again.
It is the time of pause,
when forgotten joys come back to mind,
and past dedications renew their claim.
It is the time of harvest for the heart,
when the faith reaches out to mantle all high endeavor, and love whispers its magic word to everything that breathes.
Christmas returns, as it always does,
with its assurance that life is good.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

L: God of holy mystery, it was no heavenly stranger that came to save us;

All: it was no happy accident that freed us from captivity;

L: it was no careless gesture that showed us the ways of life and death.

All: You are our light and our salvation. You alone are worthy of our worship and praise.

L: In this season of Christmas, remind us once more of what you offer: a love born of endless searching, a connection born of deep longing, a future born of selfless sacrifice.

All: Be with us now, for we are your people and you are our God. Amen.

my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?"*

PSALM 27:1, NRSV

POEM: “Christmas Carol” by Sara Teasdale

The kings they came from out the south, all dressed in ermine fine;
they bore Him gold and chrysoprase, and gifts of precious wine.

The shepherds came from out the north,
their coats were brown and old;
they brought Him little new-born lambs –
they had not any gold.

The wise men came from out the east,
and they were wrapped in white;
the star that led them all the way did glorify the night.

The angels came from heaven high,
and they were clad with wings;
and lo, they brought a joyful song
the host of heaven sings.

The kings they knocked upon the door,
the wise men entered in,
the shepherds followed after them to hear the song begin.

The angels sang through all the night
until the rising sun, but little Jesus fell asleep
before the song was done.

The Story that Shapes and Forms Us

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Reader: God of manger, straw and swaddle cloth,

All: God of silent nights and joyfully-chaotic mornings, we long to know you.

Reader: The hustle and bustle of this time of year can be more than distracting,

All: so for a moment, we pray, still our busy hearts.

Reader: Quiet our minds.

All: Help us to sink deeply into this day.

Reader: Help us to pause here, to linger here as we hear your good news spoken over us.

All: God, we long to know you, so speak to us now.

Reader: With grateful hearts, we pray.

All: With grateful hearts, we listen. Amen.

Reader: A reading from the Gospel of John, chapter one, beginning with the first verse.

GOSPEL: John 1:1-14 (The Inclusive Bible)

In the beginning
there was the Word;
the Word was in God's presence,
and the Word was God.
The Word was present to God
from the beginning.
Through the Word
all things came into being,
and apart from the Word nothing came into being that has come into being.
In the Word was life,
and that life was humanity's light –
a Light that shines in the darkness, a Light that the darkness has never overtaken.

Then came one named John, sent as an envoy from God, who came as a witness to testify about the Light, so that through his testimony everyone might believe. He himself wasn't the Light; he only came to testify about the Light – the true Light that illumines all humankind.

The Word was coming into the world – was in the world – and though the world was made through the Word,
the world didn't recognize it.
Though the Word came to its own realm,
the Word's own people didn't accept it.
Yet any who did accept the Word,
who believed in that Name, were empowered to become children of God –

children born not of natural descent, nor urge of flesh nor human will – but born of God.
 And the Word became flesh and stayed for a little while among us;
 we saw the Word's glory –
 the favor and position a parent gives an only child – filled with grace, filled with truth.

CAROL: “It Came upon the Midnight Clear” vs. 1,2

1 It came up - on the mid - night clear, that glo - rious song of old,
 2 Still through the clo - ven skies they come with peace - ful wings un - furled, from an - gels bend - ing near the earth to touch their harps of gold:

 and still their heav'n - ly mu - sic floats o'er all the wea - ry world.

“Peace on the earth, good will to all, from heav'n's all - gra - cious king.”
 A - bove its sad and low - ly plains they bend on hov - 'ring wing,

The world in sol - emn still - ness lay to hear the an - gels sing.
 and ev - er o'er its ba - bel sounds the bless - ed an - gels sing.

CAROL: "What Child Is This" vs. 1,2

A Story that Feeds Us

All: Receive them, we pray, along with our gratitude for the gift of immeasurable grace you have given us. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

L: With wonder and thanksgiving for Christ's coming into the world, we pray for the church, the life of the earth, and the whole human family. The church in every land makes a joyful noise to herald your coming, O God. We give thanks for poets, musicians, and hymn writers who give voice to our praise, and for all who lead the church's worship. God of grace,

All: hear our prayer.

L: Bring heavenly peace to this world and an end to armed conflict. Raise up leaders in every nation who will honor human rights and establish equal justice for all people. Give courage to all who speak out against oppression and advocate for the powerless. God of grace,

All: hear our prayer.

L: Guard the lives of any in danger, especially those who work to protect others. Lead any who are in desperate circumstances to sanctuary, help, and safety. Grant rest to the weary and soothe those who are troubled. God of grace,

All: hear our prayer.

L: Bless all who gather to worship on this holy day. Be present at our tables and celebrations, and watch over those who travel. Sustain charities, outreach ministries, and food pantries that give generously to people in need. God of grace,

All: hear our prayer.

L: God of all, hear the prayers of our heart said either silently or aloud.

Here other prayers may be offered.

L: God of grace,

All: hear our prayer.

L: Rejoicing in your Word made flesh among us, we commend these prayers to you, confident of your grace and love made known to us in Jesus Christ, our Savior.

All: Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

L: God is with you.

All: And also with you.

L: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to God.

L: Let us give thanks to our Creator.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks and praise to you, gracious Lord. You comforted your people with the promise of the Redeemer, that our eyes of faith may be always open in expectation of the vision of your glory.

Holy are you, O God our Creator, and blessed is your Son, Jesus Christ. As Mary and Joseph went from Galilee to Bethlehem and there found no room, so Jesus went from Galilee to Jerusalem and was despised and rejected. As in the poverty of a stable Jesus was born, so by the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

As your Word became flesh, born of a woman, on that night long ago, so on the night in which he gave himself up for us he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,

All: we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we experience the mystery of our faith.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

P: Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us, using the language or translation of our hearts.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

FRACTION RITE

P: In this meal, we taste the joy of our salvation.

All: We touch the presence of the living God.

BENEDICTION: “It Is Not Over” by Ann Weems – read by Pastor Tim

It is not over,
this birthing.

There are always newer skies into which God can throw stars.

When we begin to think that we can predict the Advent of God, that we can box the Christ
in a stable in Bethlehem, that’s just the time that God will be born in a place we can’t imagine and won’t believe.

Those who wait for God
watch with their hearts and not their eyes, listening,
always listening for angel words.

CAROL: “Go Tell It on the Mountain” vs. 1, 3
